HUMAN: hey

AI: Let's get started with the interview. Can you begin by telling me a little about yourself, including your personal background, family, and educational journey that has led you to pursue an MBA in Human Resource Development?

HUMAN: hi

AI: Let's start the interview. You have a strong academic background and some interesting internships listed on your resume, particularly in the HR field. Can you walk me through your experience as an HR Intern at CareerTrek and Karyarth Consulting, and how you think those roles have prepared you for the HR Intern position at Skilrock Technologies?

HUMAN: hey

AI: You've had a variety of experiences, from internships to leadership roles in events and conferences. I'd like to delve deeper into your experience with HR operations. You mentioned in your resume that you managed applicant tracking system (ATS) records for 500+ candidates and supported end-to-end candidate onboarding process during your internship. Can you describe a specific challenge you faced while managing these processes and how you overcame it?

HUMAN: hey

AI: You have a certification in Learning and Development from IIT Kharagpur, and you've also worked on designing modules and toolkits for Product Management and Finance. Given that Skilrock Technologies is a leading organization in the gaming industry, how do you think your skills and knowledge in learning and development can be applied to create engaging employee engagement initiatives and training programs for our employees, who may have varying levels of technical expertise?

HUMAN: hy

AI: I'm not fully sure what you want yet. Could you please clarify or give a bit more detail?

HUMAN: hi

AI: As we discussed earlier, you have a strong background in HR and have worked on various projects. I'd like to explore your problem-solving skills further. Can you give an example of a time when you had to handle a confidential or sensitive issue in your previous HR internship, and how you maintained professionalism and confidentiality in that situation?

HUMAN: hi

AI: You've had experience working with teams, leading events, and managing projects. I'd like to understand your teamwork and collaboration style. Can you describe a situation where you had to work with a cross-functional team, such as with stakeholders from different departments, to achieve a common goal, and what was your role in ensuring the team's success?

HUMAN: hi

AI: You've mentioned that you've organized several events, including Erudition, TEDx, and the Valedictory Ceremony, and you've also led initiatives to build social awareness and soft skills among students. How do you think your experience in event planning and team leadership can be applied to organizing employee engagement initiatives at Skilrock Technologies, and what ideas do you have for creating a dynamic and inclusive work environment?

HUMAN: hi

AI: As an HR Intern at Skilrock Technologies, you will be working with a diverse group of employees and stakeholders. Can you tell me about a time when you had to communicate complex information, such as HR policies or procedures, to someone who may not have a strong HR background, and how you adapted your communication style to ensure they understood the information?

HUMAN: hi

AI: Thank you for taking the time to speak with me today, Mayank. The interview has now concluded. I appreciate the opportunity to have learned more about your background, experiences, and qualifications. We will be in touch soon to discuss the next steps. Thank you again for your time, and I wish you all the best.
